MEN WHO ARE IN THE FEDERAL SERVICE NEED NOT FILL OUT QUESTIONNAIRE

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 1.—Men who were taken into the federal service under the first draft will not be required to fill out the questionnaire under the new draft regulations, declares Adjutant General J. J. Borree. General Borree made this announcement to counteract the impression created that the drafted men in training camps would be compelled to fill out the questionnaire and that those belonging in deferred classes under the new rulings would be sent back home. "The boys in camp have plenty to do without filling out seventeen-page questionnaires," says Borree. "The questionnaire is for those men who have not been drafted into federal service."

That the vacation of a redlight house on the eve of prosecution is not sufficient ground to defeat the issuance of an abatement injunction, was the decision of Superior Judge Busick in the case of Fannie H. Goodard, owner of property against which an injunction was sought. The judge held that such an act left the court to decide whether the premises were vacated because of threatened action or in good faith to permanently abate the nuisance.

OAKLAND, Dec. 1.—Contracts have been let for the construction of the great machine shops of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation's projected new plant at Alameda. By next March, it is expected, the plant will be in operation turning out steam turbines for American war vessels as its chief work. By that time, with the Union Works plant—under the same ownership—the steel company will be employing 10,000 men on this side of the bay.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Two well known diamond stars are up for examination under the draft this week. "Chuck" Ward, Pittsburgh infielder who went to the major leagues via Portland in 1916, reports in St. Louis for his examination. Sammy Bohne, former San Francisco infielder who played during 1917 in St. Louis and Milwaukee, goes before the draft board here.

Fresno, according to talk among baseball fans, is about to follow Sacramento's example and announce that it is not in a position to take over the Coast league franchise of the Portland Beavers. Sacramento has given up its Coast league aspirations, those interested in the project there reporting that they would be unable to talk business. It is rumored that Portland has arranged to become a point in the Northwestern league circuit, and the indications now are that with no takers for the Portland franchise the Coast league will drop another club and become a four city circuit.

Harry Haper, outfielder who has had several trials with Los Angeles, has been turned back to the Northwestern league by Manager Joe Tinker of Columbus, Ohio, who had acquired Harper, according to word received here. Tinker said he not only failed to hit but his fielding was erratic with Columbus.

The semi-professional ranks are being weeded out considerably by the draft and enlistments. Eddie Bonn, considered some class among semi-pro infielders, has joined the naval reserve force, as have Steve Norton, first baseman, and Charley Iredale, infielder.

Sixty-one per cent of the entire United States Marine Corps have qualified as marksmen or better, according to word received at marine corps headquarters here. Officers of the marines attribute this to the fact that a marine gets just twice as much small arms practice as an army or a navy man. The marines take the full course of both the army and navy, averaging a minimum of 300 rounds each season. Then, if a marine is a little below par on his shooting a sergeant takes him out to the rifle range for a little private instruction and he shoots until he can shoot straight.

Mayor Rolph started to see the Italian war pictures. Enroute he met John Keeley who has served 25 years in Uncle Sam's navy. The mayor thought he better take Keeley along. But Keeley told so many interesting yarns of the sea that the mayor now complains he failed to see the pictures.

ALAMEDA, Dec. 1.—Ah Yit, Chinese, admitted to Police Judge Weinmann that he had violated a city ordinance by failing to properly cover his vegetable wagon. "Yit," said the judge, "I don't want to hurt your business and send you to jail on a work day. You will serve Saturday night and Sunday in prison." "All the same you, judge, you let me go," came back Yit. The judge couldn't

T. C. Malone—Died July 11, 1917.
J. T. Merrill—Died October 11, 1917.

This beautiful Memorial service is held in every Elks Lodge on the same day. Choice music and an impressive ritualistic ceremony are features of the services that make them long remembered by those who held the departed brothers dear.

The Elks will gather at the Club rooms at 1:30, and the drill team will lead the line of march from the social headquarters to the Palace Grand theatre, where Exalted Ruler Albert D. Pearce will preside and Esquire A. L. Weaver will act as Marshal of the Day.

John B. Osborn, Past Exalted Ruler of San Diego Lodge will give the Memorial oration. Brother Osborn is conceded to be one of the most brilliant orators in San Diego county.

St. Mark's Episcopal choir with Mrs. L. W. Bosserman leader and Miss Ina Whitaker organist, will give several selections. Exalted Ruler Albert D. Pearce will give the introduction and the officers and members of the lodge will sing, "The Vacant Chair," and give other ritualistic work. Mr. and Mrs. John Marquardt, recent comers to Glendale, will furnish beautiful harp and violin music. Dr. Mills, Chaplain of the lodge, being ill, Rev. James S. O'Neill will perform the duties of that office.

Stanley Frenz, L. W. Chobe, J. Hearnshaw and Robert S. Jensen are the members of the committee in charge of the services.

Officers of Glendale Lodge are: Albert D. Pearce, Exalted Ruler. Bert P. Woodard, Esteemed Leading Knight.

U. S. HAS 584 CARGO VESSELS

CHAIRMAN HURLEY OF THE SHIPPING BOARD REPORTS 3,722,806 TONS OF SHIPPING AVAILABLE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, December 1.—The American communication line to France consists of 582 cargo ships aggregating 3,721,806 tons, Chairman Hurley of the shipping board reported to Senator Hitchcock today. The Senator obtained this information to use in Congress. This tonnage gives support to 370,000 troops in France.

ADVOCATES ANNULMENT OF NATURALIZATION

VICE PRESIDENT MARSHALL WOULD HAVE GOVERNMENT CONFISCATE PROPERTY OF DISLOYAL CITIZENS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, December 1.—Vice President Marshall has declared in favor of "action to annul the naturalization of disloyal Americans and confiscate their property to the government. The doctrine advocated by the Pacifists in the United States would lead to scenes like those in Russia," he said.

ANTI-BOLSHEVIKI REVOLT IMMINENT

TROTSKY AND LENINE ARE WORKING FRANTICALLY FOR SEPARATE PEACE BEFORE UPRISING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
STOCKHOLM, December 1.—An anti-Bolsheviki revolt in Russian provinces is imminent. Bolsheviki commissaries are resigning, fearing for their personal safety. Trotsky and Lenine are wildly striving to affect a separate peace before the uprising. Separate peace for Russia means a nation-wide revolt and civil war. Such a story was brought by a Minimalist courier direct from Petrograd.

"ENTENTE WANTS ONLY VICTORY"

GERMAN MINISTER SAYS IF ENTENTE ALLIES WANT TO KNOW OUR TERMS, THE WAY IS SIMPLE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
BERLIN, December 1.—"It is absurd to imagine that Germany will enter a peace conference with any large ambitions," War Minister von Kuehlmann said in a speech before the Reichstag today. "If the entente wants to know our conditions, the way is simple—but the entente wants only victory," he said.

AUSTRIA READY FOR PEACE

DE SAULIES CASE RESTS

FATE OF MRS. BIANCA DE SAULLES WHO KILLED HER HUSBAND WILL SOON BE KNOWN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
MINEOLA, L. I., December 1.—Both the state and the defense rested today in the trial of Mrs. Bianca de Saulles and the fate of the Chilean beauty who shot and killed her husband Jack de Saulles because he refused to give her their son will be in the hands of the jury by tonight. This trial is one of the most sensational since the great Harry Thaw case.

ASKELAND-KOEPKE

REV. SNUDDEN UNITES COUPLE AT PRETTY THANKSGIVING DAY WEDDING

Rev. B. Dudley Snudden, of the First Methodist church officiated at a pretty Thanksgiving Day wedding at the home of Mrs. A. Askeland, 925 S. Adams street, when Mrs. Askeland's son, Odin and Miss Marguerite Koepke were united in marriage.

About seventeen of the relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties were present. Decorations were of chrysanthemums and asparagus fern and were elaborate and beautiful. The bride and groom took their places at 3 o'clock under a lattice of ferns and flowers. They were attended by Miss Gladys Manning, of Glendale, and Mr. Andrew Lawton, of Los Angeles. The bride wore a handsome gown of light blue taffeta and crepe de chine and carried a shower bouquet of roses while her bridesmaid was gowned in dark blue and carried chrysanthemums.

After the impressive ceremony had been performed and the guests had extended congratulations, a luncheon was served and the bride and groom after much difficulty eluded their friends and made their escape on a short honeymoon journey. They will be at home to their friends at 925 Adams street.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Askeland are young people of sterling worth and are popular in their circle. The bride was the recipient of several happy pre-nuptial social affairs, one given by her mother, Mrs. W. W. Page, of North Glendale, and one by Mr. Askeland's sister, Mrs. Herbert Mathiesen. Many handsome wedding gifts attested to the esteem in which the bride and groom are held.

WHO DESERVES THE CREDIT?

Now since the powers that be have decided to build the Ivanhoe bridge across the Los Angeles river and thus make it possible to have a more direct road of travel from this section of the San Fernando Valley to Los Angeles, many are the individuals who are rising up and declaring "I killed the bear."

Perhaps those who did the most in the last weeks of the bridge campaign have asked for less and received less recognition. This was an instance in which Jones did more than merely pay the freight bill. However, the Evening News is aware that scores of good people from this valley aided in this great project.

AN INTERESTING LADY

(Contributed)
Among our interesting new people is Mrs. David West Cunningham, of 302 N. Orange street. Mrs. Cunningham is of an old New England family and was lately a resident of Montrose. She is living quietly regaining her strength after the strain of her late husband's long illness. Her home is interestingly furnished with rare antiques and a library with which few in this west country can compare, containing many rare old volumes. The late Mr. Cunningham was a brilliantly educated and a widely traveled man and took great pleasure in collecting his library. Mrs. Cunningham is now engaged in revising manuscripts of a book written by her husband, who was a famous engineer.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham loved outdoor life and animals and at times possessed valuable dogs and horses. Both were fond of horseback riding and Mrs. Cunningham is still the proud possessor of some fine horses on her Illinois stock farm.

"LOVE, COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE"

The above title was the theme of Singing Evangelist W. Earle Smith, at the Baptist Church last night, when he greatly delighted the large audience with his plain, practical and pointed message. With remarkable skill he applied the truths connected with the marriage relation to the facts of the gospel requirements and closed with an earnest appeal to the unsaved to become a part of the "bride of Christ" by a personal faith in the Savior of men. A fine young woman in the audience made a public confession and the meeting proved of great spiritual power.

The special meetings continue throughout tomorrow and each night next week. Pastor Cowser preaches in the morning on "The Wisdom that Wins," and in the evening Mr. Smith will sing a number of his thrilling solos and preach on "Heaven." The general public is cordially invited to all the meetings.

WEATHER FORECAST—Increasing cloudiness tonight and Sunday. Westerly winds.

PRUSSIANIZED GERMANY

From an address before the Harrisburg, Pa., Chamber of Commerce September 26, 1917, by OTTO H. KAHN

I speak as one who has seen the spirit of the Prussian governing class at work from close by, having at its disposal and using to the full practically every agency for moulding the public mind.

I have watched it proceed with relentless persistency and profound cunning to instill into the nation the demoniacal obsession of power-worship and world-domination, to modify and pervert the mentality—indeed the very fibre and moral substance—of the German people, a people which until misled, corrupted and systematically poisoned by the Prussian ruling caste, was and deserved to be an honored, valued and welcome member of the family of nations.

I have hated and loathed that spirit ever since it came within my ken many years ago; hated it all the more as I saw it ruthlessly pulling down a thing which was dear to me—the old Germany to which I was linked by ties of blood, by fond memories and cherished sentiments.

The difference in the degree of guilt as between the German people and their Prussian or Prussianized rulers and leaders for the monstrous crime of this war and the atrocious barbarism of its conduct is the difference between the man who, acting under the influence of a poisonous drug, runs amuck in mad frenzy and the unspeakable malefactor who administered that drug, well knowing and fully intending the ghastly consequences which were bound to follow.

The world fervently longs for peace. But there can be no peace answering to the true meaning of the word—no peace permitting the nations of the earth, great and small, to walk unarmed and unafraid—until the teaching and the leadership of the apostles of an outlaw creed shall have become discredited and hateful in the sight of the German people; until that people shall have awakened to a consciousness of the unfathomable guilt of those whom they have followed into calamity and shame; until a mood of penitence and of a decent respect for the opinions of mankind shall have supplanted the sway of what President Wilson has so trenchantly termed "truculence and treachery."

God strengthen the conscience and the understanding, the will and the power of the German people so that they may find the only road which will give to the world an early peace and in time lead Germany back into the family of nations from which it is now an outcast.

From each successive visit to Germany for twenty-five years I came away more appalled by the sinister transmutation Prussianism had wrought amongst the people and by the portentous menace I recognized in it for the entire world.

It had given to Germany unparalleled prosperity, beneficent and advanced social legislation and not a few other things of value, but it had taken in payment the soul of the race. It had made a "devil's bargain."

And when this war broke out in Europe I knew that the issue had been joined between the powers of brutal might and insensate ambition on the one side and the forces of humanity and liberty on the other; between darkness and light.

Many there were at that time—and amongst them men for whose character I had high respect and whose motives were beyond any possible suspicion—who saw their own and America's duty in strict neutrality, mentally and actually, but personally I believed from the beginning of the war, whether we liked all the elements of the Allies combination or not—and I certainly did not like the Russia of the Czars—that the cause of the Allies was America's cause.

I believed that this was no ordinary war between peoples for a question of national interest, or even national honor, but a conflict between fundamental principles and ideas; and so believing I was bound to feel that the natural lines of race, blood and kinship could not be the determining lines for one's attitude and alignment, but that each man, regardless of his origin, had to decide according to his judgment and conscience on which side was the right and on which was the wrong, and take his stand accordingly, whatever the wrench and anguish of the decision. And thus I took my stand three years ago.

But whatever one's views and feelings, whatever the country of one's birth or kin, only one course was left for all those claiming the privilege of American citizenship when after infinite forbearance the President decided that our honor and safety demanded that we take up arms against the Imperial German Government, and by action of Congress the cause and the fight against that Government were declared our cause and our fight.

The duty of loyal allegiance and faithful service to his country, even unto death, rests, of course, upon every American. But, if it be possible to speak of a comparative degree concerning what is the highest as it is the most elementary attribute of citizenship, that duty may almost be said to rest with an even more solemn and compelling obligation upon American of foreign origin than upon native Americans.

For we Americans of foreign antecedents are here not by the accidental right of birth, but by our own free choice for better or for worse.

We are your fellow citizens because you accepted our oath of allegiance as given in good faith, and because you have opened to us in generous trust the portals of American opportunity and freedom, and have admitted us to membership in the family of Americans, giving us equal rights in the great inheritance which has been created by blood and the toil of your ancestors, asking nothing from us in return but decent citizenship and adherence to those ideals and principles which are symbolized by the glorious flag of America.

Woe to the foreign-born American who betrays the splendid trust which you have reposed in him!

Woe to him who considers his American citizenship merely as a convenient garment to be worn in fair weather but to be exchanged for another one in time of storm and stress!

Woe to the German-American, so-called, who, in this sacred

DON'T DO IT

If evil times befall you and misfortune sore forestalls you, and it's hard for you to cipher how or where you're coming out; if you've had such measly pickings, and so many beastly lickings, that you're tempted to let all your faith and hope go up the spout, don't do it! For you're not the slightest notion what a mighty, boundless ocean of good luck awaits the man who grits his teeth, and says: "I will!" Keep your grip a little longer, go set your heels a little stronger; doubting Fortune is to wrong her—don't do it.—George W. Hatch.

WHEREIN HE WAS CONSPICUOUS

The native was pointing out some of the local celebrities. "Yonder," he said impressively, "is the Hon. James Copmaster." "Ah, I see. I don't seem to remember the name. Has he been conspicuous in the halls of legislature?" "You said something. He's been conspicuous in some of the biggest hauls the legislature ever made, I guess!"

war for a cause as high as any for which ever people took up arms, does not feel a solemn urge, does not show an eager determination to be in the very fore-front of the struggle; does not prove a patriotic jealousy, in thought, in action and in speech to rival and to out-do his native-born fellow citizen in devotion and in willing sacrifice for the country of his choice and adoption and sworn allegiance and of their common affection and pride.

As Washington led Americans of British blood to fight against Great Britain, as Lincoln called upon Americans of the North to fight their very brothers of the South, so Americans of German descent are now summoned to join in our country's righteous struggle against a people of their own blood, which, under the evil spell of a dreadful obsession, and, Heaven knows, through no fault of ours, has made itself the enemy of this peace-loving Nation, as it is the enemy of peace and right and freedom throughout the world.

To gain America's independence, to defeat oppression and tyranny, was indeed to gain a great cause.

To preserve the Union, to eradicate slavery, was perhaps a greater still.

To defend the very foundations of liberty and humanity, the very groundwork of fair dealing between nations, the very basis of peaceable living together among the peoples of the earth against the fierce and brutal onslaught of ruthless, lawless, faithless might; to spend the lives and the fortunes of this generation so that our descendants may be freed from the dreadful calamity of war and the fear of war, so that the energies and billions of treasure now devoted to plans and instruments of destruction may be given henceforth to fruitful works of peace and progress and to the betterment of the conditions of the people—that is the highest cause for which any people ever unsheathed its sword.

He who shirks the full measure of his duty and allegiance in that noblest of causes, be he German-American, Irish-American, or any other hyphenated American, be he I. W. W. or Socialist or whatever the appellation, does not deserve to stand amongst Americans or, indeed, amongst free men anywhere.

He who, secretly or overtly, tries to thwart the declared will and aim of the Nation in this holy war is a traitor, and a traitor's fate should be his.

CATS AND GAME

The cat because of its destruction of game birds and small game is beginning to figure in the statutes. Massachusetts in 1917 passed a law prohibiting possession of cats on Mekegat Island or the bringing of any cats to the island and Michigan declared cats following on the track of game birds or small game public nuisances and decreed that the owner who permits them to run at large after notice from the game commissioner shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHANDLER FUNERAL

The family and friends of Mr. C.
 C. Chandler paid their last tribute to him this afternoon when they assembled at the Masonic Temple at half past two o'clock for the funeral service. The service of the Christian Science church was read and then the Knights Templar took charge with their impressive ritual, reading the following eulogy to the departed:

Cornelius C. Chandler was born at Concord, N. H., July 13, 1837. He served in the Civil War as Sergeant of Company C 185th Vol. Since a member of Abraham Lincoln Post G.
 A. R., Chicago.

In 1876 he joined Home Lodge 508 A. F. and A. M. and was still a member when he died.

In 1880 he joined Chicago Chapter R. A. M. and Chevalier Bayard Commandery No. 32 Knights Tem-plar in Chicago.

He was a charter member and belonged at the time of his death to Unity Chapter R. A. M. No. 116 and Glendale Commandery K. T. No. 53.
 One who has known Mr. Chandler intimately for the past thirty years requests the reading of his testimonial to the sweetness and gentleness and greatness of his friend's character. As a business man he was a builder, successful always as success is commonly accepted by men but far and beyond that a builder in the broadest sense of the term—always lending a generous hand to those in need—building homes, churches and helping to build and develop character for all who satisfied him of their worthiness.

He always made a close investigation first and then if worthy—helped as best he could. It was not in him to do otherwise.

As a family man he raised a large from any other that I have ever heard of.

—It is hard to explain its workings in my short space. A stock-company, with two millions of capital earning 25 per-mutual company to its insurance policy-holders, with a net cost at least as low as any company on earth.

circle—children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, nearly all of whom are here today to bear witness to the fact that he was a father always to them all.

As an American citizen he was a patriot from the time he enlisted in the defense of the Union in the Civil War to the day of his death. What more concrete example can we have of this than the finding of a Liberty
 Bond in his pocket after his death.

Mrs. Chandler's birthday occurred yesterday, November 30, 1917, two days before we find this Liberty Bond folded in a handkerchief and tucked away in his pocket—to give his good wife as a birthday present.

As a Mason and Knight Templar
 he has ever been an honored member, firm and true to all the principles of the order—founded upon the Christian religion and the practice of the Christian virtues.

In a word he has been a Christian gentleman, kindly—generous and strong for the right. He has or will receive from the hands of the Master whom he has so faithfully served a crown of victory.

The Knights Templar escorted the remains to the grave where they formed an escort for the members of the Grand Army of the Republic who conducted their service at the grave, sounding "Taps" for the one who had answered the last roll call.

No wearing of mourning is becoming general in England and France.
 This desirable condition has come about because it was found that the wearing of black by so many not only had a more depressing effect on the whole civilian populations, but also proved a positive menace to the national interests in that it diverted workmen and material from strictly necessary channels into streams that fed the unnecessary.

OUR LOANS TO OTHER NATIONS

The United States has loaned to other nations engaged in war with Germany something over three billion dollars, taking for the sums advanced the obligations of such nations, bearing the same interest and maturing at the same time as the Liberty Bonds.

The wisdom of this policy is beyond question. By strengthening these nations and making them as powerful and as effective as possible we are greatly aiding in the shortening of the struggle; we are doing much to insure an ultimate victory; we are doing only that which it is our duty to do toward our allies in this tremendous war against an autocracy which would debase and en-slave all nations and men.

The fact that if we did not advance this money much of the work which the allies are doing would have to be done with American money and American men establishes clearly the intelligence and wisdom of our policy.

There is work to be done which requires the expenditure of blood and treasure. In making these money advances to Great Britain, France, Italy and other nations we are lending money, which will be returned to us, instead of expending sums possibly as great, possibly greater, with no hope of return. In addition, we are saving the lives of American soldiers.

No policy the American Government has pursued is wiser or more truly economical and patriotic.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE

 of California in and for the County of Los Angeles.

In the matter of the voluntary dissolution of the Seaboard Land Security Company, a corporation.

Notice is hereby given that on November 26, 1917, the Seaboard Land Security Company, a corporation, filed with said court in writing, a voluntary application for dissolution of said corporation and that thereupon said court ordered that the same be heard in said court on December 28, 1917, at 10 o'clock a. m.,

We were fined for keeping Christmas once. Yes, in America! In 1659 the general court in Massachusetts enacted that "anybody who is found observing, by abstinence from labor, feasting, or any other way, any such day as Christmas Day shall pay for every such offense five shillings." This law held and was enforced for 22 years and even when it was finally repealed in 1681 the Puritans grew bitter and for years never recognized the day.

Preaching at 10:30 and 7:30.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

This coming Sunday ushers in the great Advent season. And as we have always observed it, with some appropriate address, the pastor will bring a message uppermost in the minds of most Christians today "Christ's Second Coming in the Light of His First Coming," as 11 o'clock. It is a strong message, clear and to the point, helpful and conclusive. All without church affiliations are cordially invited and urged to be present. Come to "The Friendly Church."

Our Christian Endeavor will join with the C. E. of the Presbyterian at 6:15 in their church. There will be no evening service in our building as our congregation is joining with the Presbyterian in their celebration of the Reformation, when our pastor is giving his finely illustrated lecture on "Luther, the Monk Who Shook the World." All cordially invited to that service at 7:30 o'clock.

WEST GLENDALE EPWORTH LEAGUE

Be sure and be on hand to roll call tomorrow evening. When your name is called, respond with a verse of scripture. Every member is urged to be present to answer to his name. Visitors and new member are cordially welcomed.

We had a splendid Thanksgiving service last Sunday evening with Miss Alda Gervais as leader. You surely missed a fine service if you were unable to be there.

West Glendale M. E. Church, 6:30 p. m. There will be special music and a good leader.

TRUSTEES' MEETING

the month of November was read and ordered to be filed.

On motion of Trustee Grist, it was ordered that the bids for printing the annual report, be opened, read and publicly declared at this time.

The following bids were opened, and read:

A. T. Cowan, Glendale Evening News, 500 copies of the annual report, City of Glendale, per page $2.25.

Vold & Didricksen, same as above, price per page, $3.75.

On motion of Trustee Grist, the bids were ordered to be referred to the City Manager and the Manager of the Public Service Department to report on later.

The demands were presented and referred to the Finance Committee. At this time, the City Clerk presented to the Board of Trustees a copy and duplicate of the record of the canvass of the vote at the election held in Tropico on November 21, 1917, submitting to the people of that city the question of the consolidation of the City of Tropico with the City of Glendale, which copy and duplicate of said record had been delivered to him by the City Clerk of Tropico.

On motion, "An Ordinance of the City of Glendale approving the consolidation of the City of Tropico with the City of Glendale," was taken up for reading.

On motion, this ordinance was declared read for the first time and was taken up for the second reading.

On motion, this ordinance was declared read for the second time and was laid over till the next regular meeting for the third and final reading.

The Manager of the Public Service Department reported that his report and that of the expert employed by the City to investigate the subject of a municipal gas plant, will be ready within a few days.

The matter of the protest of Mrs. Bayless against the assessment for the improvement of Grand View avenue, was taken up at this time, and on motion, continued until the next regular meeting.

On motion of Trustee Grist, it was ordered that warrants be issued for the demands:

Trustee Jackson presented a resolution expressing the appreciation of the Board for the assistance given by the Evening Express and the Morning Tribune to the project of securing the Brand boulevard bridge over the Los Angeles river at Ivanhoe, which, on motion of Trustee Jackson, was adopted.

On motion of Trustee Grist, a similar resolution was adopted expressing the appreciation of the Board for the assistance given the project by the Glendale Evening News.

Trustee Woodberry presented a motion, which was adopted, expressing the thanks of the Board to the Los Angeles Times for its assistance given in furtherance of the project.

On motion of Trustee Muhleman, the Board expressed its appreciation of the services rendered in this matter by the Los Angeles Examiner and the Glendale Press. All of these motions being adopted unanimously.

The City Manager and the Manager of the Public Service Department made their report in reference to bids for printing the City Annual Report, recommending the acceptance of the bid of A. T. Cowan, and upon motion of Trustee Grist, the report of the committee was concurred in, and it was ordered that the work be awarded to Mr. A. T. Cowan, by the following roll call:

Ayes: Grist, Jackson, Muhleman, Thompson, Woodberry.
Noes: None.

HENRY FORD'S TRACTOR

Henry Ford informed friends at the Detroit Athletic club in Detroit the other day that he had just notified France that that country could have 12,000 Ford tractors. He is now working on from 6000 to 7000 for England, and all of these will have to be delivered before America's demand is met. Mr. Ford said that he was taking advantage of the present fine weather in making the tests, and that in a short time several of these tractors would be moved to the South for test work there. He laughingly said that he was 54 years old, but believed that in his present condition he was capable of running farther and running faster than any 34-year-old man in Detroit. As indicating the work he is doing, he told of rising at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning, and of following 11 tractors over the fields. He rode on many of these, and at the close of the morning's test, knew everything that was to be known regarding the work of each. Mr. Ford said that all of his tractors were being fitted to create their own light for night work. The other night a test was made with one of them, and it plowed an acre in 65 minutes. Mr. Ford said that it was evident that the government action with regard to the manufacturing of automobiles was in line with a saving policy and that it was probable the government did not care to have the manufacturers make too many cars, as too many cars meant the consumption of precious gasoline.

A pitched baseball was recently timed, and it took 0.288 second to reach from the pitcher's hand to the batter. The ball thus traveled at a speed of 210 feet a second, or 2 3/5 miles a minute. It required 0.796 second to throw a ball from the catcher to second base, a distance of 129 feet. Little wonder that bases are so difficult to steal!

LA CRESCENTA

Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge have returned to their home on Sycamore street after a three weeks' absence.

Mrs. G. B. Russell entertained relatives at her country home, The Audubon, over the week end.

Professor Clarke and family of the Glendale high school spent last Saturday at the home of J. E. B. Jones.

Mr. Graham and daughter of Centerville, Iowa, are spending the winter at the home of Mr. Gedney.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bissell are anticipating a visit from his mother from Grand Rapids, Mich.

Mrs. V. B. Chaffin has her nephew from the Presidio as a week-end guest.

Mrs. Hamlin spent Tuesday at her La Crescenta home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Evans are home from San Francisco for a short stay.

The Red Cross class on Thursday next will have Miss Lowe, an English military nurse, as a guest. She is just over from England from a military hospital and will give us a talk on the needs over there. Everybody come out and hear her at the schoolhouse. Tea will be served in the Red Cross room by Mesdames Thompson and Haines, and a silver offering will be gathered for the purchase of wool for the knitting squad. Our Red Cross is turning out good work but it should turn out more good work. Come out and help. Also the treasury is low. Every penny that has been spent has been for material. We have no overhead charges to pay, and we need a regular income. Come and pledge yourself to a dollar a month or more, if you can afford it, so that we may purchase material for bandages and hospital garments. Our boys are going over the top and if we would take care of just our own we must send three times as much as we are doing at present. This does not allow any help for our allies. Have you a boy in the army? Did your neighbor's boy go? They might be the first to need these supplies we are making. Come, hear Miss Lowe and you will better understand these conditions and be ready and willing to donate your time, your labor and your money.

Mrs. B. T. Miller is in receipt of the following letter:

"To the ladies of La Crescenta: On behalf of the French Relief Society permit me to present more sincere thanks for your generous donation of infants' clothing, both numerous and excellent, and we appreciate most highly your philanthropy and kindly interest manifested for the cause of the fatherless children of France.

"These articles will be joined and grouped in a shipment approximating 100 cases which we are forwarding to France about November 26, and will go to gladden the hearts of a few of the numerous victims of the war.

"Please convey our message of appreciation to those who have collaborated in this noble work.

"Yours very sincerely,
"French War Relief Society."
"L. N. BRUNSWIG, President."

These garments were all new infants' clothing made by some of the ladies and the Camp Fire Girls for the little French babies. They expect to make some more, too, so if you will take home a garment or two, go see Mrs. Miller for material and instructions.

December 4 is Children's Night, and our picture is of Baby Marie Osborne in "Told at Twilight." The laugh of a child, the world over, no man can resist it. A child, Mary Sunshine, filled with a desire to play with other children, was forbidden to do so by her mother. But one day Peggy, a young negro child, appeared over the top of the fence and the temptation was too great. From that day on Mary was given to running off with Peggy. As punishment for her first offense she was sent to bed without supper, but neither her mother nor father could sleep when they realized that Mary was hungry, so they caught each other bringing food to the naughty youngster.

On a nearby estate lived Daniel Graham, rich, alone and grumpy. To him came the awakening when he heard the laugh of a child. Looking over the fence to locate the laugh, he found Mary and Peggy encouraging a chicken fight. From then on day after day, the child visited him, and brought cheer to the big mansion which had never had known the sound of childish laughter.

On the off days, when not at the big house, Mary and Peggy ran wild for ways in which to make passersby lose their seriousness and smile.

Not aware of the friendship of the child for the rich man, Mary's father, in order to make up for foolish ventures on the stock market, attempted to rob the big house. The same evening Mary remained at the big house after her birthday party given her by David Graham. Being restless in her sleep from so many good things to eat, Mary started down stairs to frighten her friend, but instead she walked into the room just as her father was in the middle of his wrong doing. How does it end? Come and see. Next Tuesday. Bring the children. Grownups invited also.

LA CANADA

The regular meeting of the Red Cross was held last Tuesday, November 27. Twenty ladies were present at the meeting and were kept busy folding gauze bandages and making hospital shirts. Mrs. Asthworth and Miss Fannie Jewett served tea at the meeting, taking in two dollars. Mrs. Goddard suggested a week ago that any articles the ladies had that they would like to sell should be brought to the Red Cross room and dropped into a basket for sale, the donation going into the Red Cross fund. Tuesday several articles were brought. This idea seems to prove itself popular. "Exchange" Tuesday comes at the next regular meeting December 4. Remember to call early for home made eats.

Portraying noted men will be the feature of the next regular meeting of the Improvement association. The meeting will be held Saturday evening, December 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have charge of the program. Several musical numbers will be given. All are urged to come out as the committee have worked hard to make this an unusually interesting meeting.

Mr. C. B. Anderson, on Haskel street, has sold his ranch to Mr. Riggs, who owns several acres in the valley. Mr. Riggs owns 18 acres on La Canada boulevard that he has completely cleared of brush, making an attractive spot that had heretofore been an eyesore to those living on this street. Mr. Riggs also owns several lots in Flintridge tract.

Sixty dollars was the sum raised by the La Canada Congregational church Friday evening, November 21, when they gave a benefit supper for the financial support of the church. The tables were set for 56 people and had to be re-set three times. After supper a program was given by the Ladies' Aid in the church room.

After passing a strenuous civil service examination for clerk in the Federal building, Los Angeles, Mr. John H. Armstrong is now serving in that capacity on the night shift. Mr. Armstrong took the examination last April and passed very high. Later he was called to take the physical examination but failed because he was unable to pass the eye test, but because of his high standing in the mental examination special permission from Washington was given to take him on the next vacancy that occurred. Mr. Armstrong was called last Saturday for work.

With the object in view to sew for the French orphans, the Girls' club met Friday evening at the home of the Misses Green. This was the first meeting where materials were at hand to sew on. Intense interest has been taken by the girls in this work and great progress is expected to be made by them. The next meeting will be held Friday evening, November 30. The meeting will be held at the home of the Misses Lanterman. All members are asked to be present if possible.

TUJUNGA

The entertainment for the benefit of the French R. C. relief, was held at Bolton hall on Tuesday evening, November 27 and was surely a success. Everything for the entertainment was donated and the net profits for the evening amounted to over $25. This money will be used to purchase material to be used in making garments. The program was fully carried out and enjoyable. The evening opened with singing by the audience of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" led by Dr. Buck. Then followed a recitation "The American Flag" by Margaret Frost. The To-hun-ger Quartet, consisting of Mrs. Hoffman, bass, Miss Osgood, tenor, Mrs. Hough, alto and Mrs. Darling-ton, soprano, garbed in sunbonnets and aprons, sang an original Hoover song to the tune of "Happy Day." The last stanza dealt on the men conserving tobacco to send to the "Sammies." Next followed a singing of "Dixieland" by the audience. Miss Hatch gave a recitation, "A Tribute to France" by Van Dyke. Next came an original skit, "Fifteen Minutes in a Boys' School," by Prof. Parcher and his troop, which consisted of Dr. Buck, Fred Ashby and Mr. Johnson, Miss Osgood as the teacher. When old men turn boys, there is something doing. Miss Osgood, as usual, made a fine teacher, and never a smile on her face. Each was perfect in his part and kept the audience convulsed with laughter, and dropped in many local hits. Dr. Buck sang an original song interspersed with local hits and had to respond to an encore. Mrs. Tomassen played his accompaniment. Mrs. Dean sang an old war time song "They Grafted Him into the Army," bringing the song up to date with an extra verse. This was a character song. Mr. W. H. Wieman followed with an address, touching on the war's devastation of the home. His reading was enhanced by the playing at an interval of "Home Sweet Home" on two mandolins by Don Wieman and his sister. Dr. Buck then favored us with a solo accompanied by Mrs. Tomassen. So well was it received that he responded to an encore. Fred M. Ashby was called upon to so worthy a cause and gave us some messages from Capt. Blake from "Somewhere in France" that were cheering and encouraging to the R. C. workers. This was followed after the taking up of a silver offering, by the audience singing "The Star Spangled Banner." At the end of the program the ladies served coffee, chocolate and cake and a social time was enjoyed. Mrs. C. C. Buck and Mrs. Dunn presided at the piano during the singing. Taken all in all it was a grand success, and the ladies are now ready to go on with the work before them. The hall was nicely decorated with flags and bunting, kindly left over for our use by the Colonial club.

C. F. Spencer, State Highway Inspector, has rented Mrs. Dunning's home on El Centro for the winter, while superintending the construction of the highway for the winter.

Miss Hazel Reed of Los Angeles, has rented the Bell cottage on Monte Vista boulevard for the winter.

Frank Green has been retired from the Marine service on account of his eyes, and will enter the railway mail service.

The last meeting of the Bee club for the year was held Monday evening at Dean's store. Business matters were chiefly the event of the evening. A discussion of methods for "Wintering Bees" was entered into and an article from the Western Honey Bee, on the subject was read and enjoyed. Also condition of bees of members and methods of feeding. The meeting then adjourned subject to the call of the president.

Mrs. Hillard entertained her daughter Justine and Miss Grey, also the Misses Kimball, at a Thanksgiving picnic, at her home on Las Robles avenue.

The Colonial Dancing club gave a very enjoyable party last Saturday evening. The members were arrayed in Colonial costumes, as has been their custom at Thanksgiving time each year. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Mr. Wattel who is occupying the home of C. H. Clark, is on the sick list. Many more of our residents are suffering from severe colds.

The surveyors have begun their preliminary work on Michigan avenue as the numerous stakes and markers seem to indicate. Well, it's been a long time coming, but it's almost here, and all Tujunga and Sunland are rejoicing.

The meeting of the directors of the Board of Trade resulted in the appointment of Wilmot Parcher for president, C. C. Buck, vice president, C. J. Woodrow, secretary and treasurer.

We had eight thanksgiving days in a year once. That was during the Revolutionary war. They fell in April, May, July and December. Then in 1777 Washington cut the days to one, in December, and the next year he appointed a day in May. Then, in 1789, came our present Thanksgiving Day in November. But the day fell into disuse until in July, 1863, a Philadelphia woman, Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, sent a copy of Washington's Thanksgiving proclamation to President Lincoln and suggested that he revive the day and make it national. Lincoln did, but made Thanksgiving August 6. After that the idea spread and the date was brought back to November.

A man bought a pair of shoes for five dollars. He had them shined by a bootblack twice a week. The shoes lasted him 14 months. So the shoes cost him more to keep them up than the original cost. That is like the man who bought a Ford automobile: had it washed every evening in a garage and found that, at the end of the first year, the cost of cleaning the car was greater than the original cost.
